JS/26/89SNCT Website

Dear Colleague

This letter is to advise that a new SNCT website has been developed and is ready to launch. The website will go live on 11 May 2026 and the address remains unchanged <https://www.snct.org.uk>.

The SNCT website remains the definitive source of all current SNCT terms and conditions. There is also information on job sizing and a comprehensive archive of SNCT circulars and letters of advice.

The look of the website has been maintained. Website users should not notice any significant difference when visiting the site in terms of navigation. There are a number of improvements, one example being the search function.

Those with responsibility for uploading LNCT agreements will require to be issued with new login details and should make contact with Angela Connelly aconnelly@eis.org.uk to obtain these. Those individuals will also be given instructions on how to access an online tutorial as the process for uploading agreements is a little different. The list of users for the SNCT website will be held by the SNCT.

Yours sincerely
